Dave Ramsey’s Financial Peace University
To Be Offered in Iowa Falls

Did you know that if you only invest one dollar a month it will grow to $1,000 in 20 years? Did you know that if you invest $100 per month for 40 years you will retire a millionaire? Are you worried about how you are going ever get out of debt? Wherever you are at in your financial life, the solution is simple, education.

Join us as we journey together with radio personality, Dave Ramsey, while he shares his personal life-changing process that took him from bankruptcy to millionaire. You will learn how to: manage money so the lack of it doesn't manage you; get out of debt & stay that way; communicate with your spouse/partner about money; invest with confidence; and change your financial future. Dave’s humor will have you in stitches while he teaches you how to make the right money decisions to achieve your financial goals and experience a total money makeover.

The 13-week course will be held on Tuesday evenings, starting Jan. 19 from 6-8 pm in Fellowship Hall at the Iowa Falls First United Methodist Church. Cost is $50 per family. Participants are invited for a light supper at 5:30 pm before starting class. Babysitting is available, if needed.

Classes are being sponsored by the Hardin County Community Endowment Foundation, Iowa Valley Continuing Education, Green Belt Bank and Trust, Iowa Falls State Bank, Liberty Bank, Ackley State Bank, and the Iowa Falls Ministerial Association.

Course includes one financial kit per family, lifetime membership to Financial Peace University, free refresher classes, all lessons on CD, Dave Ramsey's bestselling book & lessons, online resources, Zig Ziglar's goal setting program, group support & more. Kit fee is included in price. Facilitator is Jean Brownlie, Iowa Valley Business Resources. Contact Iowa Valley Continuing Education at 1-800-284-4823 to register today to change your financial future. Registration deadline is January 11. Maximum class is 30 participants.
